

Public event: FREE SPEECH FOR A FREE PALESTINE

Saturday 20 October 2018, 2pm

St Paul's Episcopal Church Hall, Dean Hood Place, Rothesay

As the Palestinian community of Khan al Ahmar faces imminent demolition by Israel's occupation forces, Israeli government allies in Scotland are working to suppress free speech on Palestine and solidarity actions.

Scottish PSC Chair Sofiah MacLeod, who has visited Israel and Palestine numerous times, will give a report on the current situation, on attempts to silence human rights campaigners in Scotland and beyond, and on the campaign to ensure Strathclyde Pension Fund does not invest in companies involved in Israel's illegal occupation and violations of Palestinian rights.

Join us for discussion and planning for a free Palestine!
